Letter from the chairman of the board,

Dear Shareholders,

In the midst of trade war between the United States of America and China for almost a year in 2018, the world economy has been affected in general, with Thailand included. However, being well prepared, the North-Eastern Wattana Hospital had renovated the building and the surrounding together with the expansion of the medical services. Resulting in the year 2018, the hospital can increase our income by 12 per cent, as you may see in the financial statement of 2018 part in your annual report in your hand.

Nevertheless, there were the co-operations of referral network in some specialties with other hospitals in Bangkok as well as the opening of special centers such as heart center and hemodialysis center at the hospital which are more convenient for the patients by eliminating the needs to travel to other places to receive the medical care.

Moreover, the result of service expansion in obstetrics and gynecology as well as the 24 hour pediatrics are popular and satisfying. This year, the referral of patient from Nongkhai and Laos including the nearby province as Nongbualamphu and Beungkarn will be focused. The ambulance will be provided more and the driver will be trained for patient safety.

We would like to thank our shareholders for continue supporting us always.

Sincerely Yours

(Ass. Prof. Dr. Phiphat Tangsubkul)

5. Expanded the hemodialysis department from 20 units to 35 units
6. Preparation for the 24 hours service of Heart Center

3.4 Industry's Trend and Future Competition

1. Industry's Structure

The private hospital industry is a highly competitive industry with the competitors being from both the private and public sectors. Together with, the variety of healthcare scheme available for patients to freely acquire the healthcare services, for examples, the National Health Scheme, Social Security Scheme, and Government Employees Program. This, to a certain extent, lowers the number of patients coming to private hospitals.

The Company's Advantages

The company has been operating a private hospital for more than 33 years, therefore is well-known among the local patients who trust in the experiences in healthcare the hospital has to offer. Additionally, the company was established by a group of medical doctors, ensuring that the level of quality of healthcare has been the first priority to be maintained over time. The company focuses on the continuously improvement of the quality of personnel and the quality of the healthcare system with the patient safety as a prime concern.

The Company's Disadvantages

Since the company is located in a country town, the recruitment of medical specialists and other healthcare professionals is found much more difficult than it would be in Bangkok.

2. Industry Competition

The market and competition of private hospitals in the Company's area consist of 3 private competing hospitals. They are Bangkok Udon Hospital (100 bed sized), Aek Udon Hospital (100 bed sized), and Khonkaen Ram Hospital (200 bed sized). The market segments are clearly marked among the competitors. All the private hospitals in Udonthani, except the Company, aim for the high income based customers. Whereas the Company aims for the medium to high income based customers. This leads to high level of competition in the high-income based customers segment. In the last year, the level of competition was even higher because of the expansion of Bangkok Hospital into the province; the hospital was well known among the high-income based customers. This urges for the Company to adjust its strategies to increase the competitiveness by focusing on the quality improvement, and getting accredited by the national body. Together with using pricing mechanism to increase the competitive advantage of the Company by being more flexible in the price setting than the competitors.

4. Risk factors

Operational risks

- (a) Risks from changing in the governmental policies, rules, regulations, and laws related to the company.
- (b) Risks from reliance on specialists
Both specialists and registered nurses are scarce personnel. This is especially the case when the company is situated in the upcountry. The recruitment of both specialist doctors and registered nurses is limited.

Financial risks

- (a) Debt payment delay risk
In the past couples of years, there has be an increasing trend of customers using health insurance. This results in the increasing debt amount, and increasing the chance of the delay in payment. This in turns can affect the cashflow of the company, and the risk of debt default is increased.
- (b) Legal disputes, there would be a risk of lawsuit on medical services.

Risks that affecting the rights or investment of shareholders

- (a) Risk from the company's major shareholders holding more that 50%
As of the 31th of December, 2018, the Tangsubkul family has the number of shares in the company of 5,784,074 shares, or 57.84 per cent of the total paid shares of the company. This makes the Tangsubkul family able to control almost all the agendas at the Annual General Meeting of shareholders, including the appointing of directors and any agendas required majority votes of the shareholders. This is with an exception of any agendas required 3 out of 4 votes at the shareholders' meeting by law or the company's rules.
- (b) Risks from shares having not many free float, resulting in the low liquidity in share trading
As of the 31th of December, 2018, there were 444 minor shareholders and holding the company's share (Free Float) of 1,849,426 shares, or 18.49 per cent. This may result in low trading of stock and ordinary investors may not be able to trade at the normal level. This also means that the existing shareholders may have risk of not being able to sell the shares immediately at the prices as wish.

All of these factors combined are likely to have an impact on the operations of the hospital. However, the company has already planned to cope with the economic situation and the high competition by focusing on providing the healthcare services with high quality while prices are reasonable to increase the accessible for larger markets.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF WATTANA KARNPAET PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED

Opinion

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of WATTANA KARNPAET PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED, which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2018, and the related statements of comprehensive income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of WATTANA KARNPAET PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED as at December 31, 2018, and its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with Thai Financial Reporting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with Thai Standards on Auditing. My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of my report. I am independent of the Company in accordance with the Federation of Accounting Professions under the Royal Patronage of His Majesty the King's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to my audit of the financial statements, and I have fulfilled my other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in my professional judgment, were of most significance in my audit of the financial statements. My opinion on the financial statements is not modified with respect to any of the key audit matters described below, and I do not express an opinion on these individual matters.

I have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of my report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, my audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to my assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements. The results of my audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for my audit opinion on the accompanying financial statements as a whole.

Key audit matter and how audit procedures respond for each matter are described below;

Revenue recognition

The Company has principle income from hospital business for the year ended December 31, 2018 amounting to Baht 356.08 million representing 97.38% of total revenue and there are a large number of revenue transaction and it also has several components, such as revenue from hospital, revenue from sales of medicines, revenue from hospital rooms which are derived from provision of services to various types and a large number of customers. There are, therefore, risks with respect to the amount and timing of revenue recognition. I therefore, consider the recognition of revenue from hospital operation to be key matter.

My significant audit procedures are assessing and testing the Company's internal controls with respect to the revenue cycle by making enquiry of responsible executives, gaining an understanding of the controls and selecting representative samples to test the operation of the designed controls. I also applied method to sampling examining supporting documents for revenue transactions occurring during the year and near the end of accounting period, testing the cut-off of revenue recognition, reviewing of credit notes that the Company issued after the period - end. In addition, I performed analytical procedures to detect possible irregularities in revenue transactions throughout the period.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprise the information included in annual report of the Company, but does not include the financial statements and my auditor's report thereon. The annual report of the Company is expected to be made available to me after the date of this auditor's report.

My opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and I do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with my audit of the financial statements, my responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or my knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When I read the annual report of the Company, if I conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, I am required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance for correction of the misstatement.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Thai Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the financial statements

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Thai Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Thai Standards on Auditing, I exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. I also :

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the financial statements (Con't)

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

I communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

I am also required to provide those charged with governance with a statement that I have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, I determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. I describe these matters in my auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, I determine that a matter should not be communicated in my report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner responsible for the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chaovana Viwatpanachati.

3.2 New Thai Accounting Standards announce during the year not yet adopted (Con't)

3.2.2 Effective for the financial statements for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2020 (Con't)

The above-mentioned standards were aimed at alignment with the corresponding International Financial Reporting Standards, with most of the changes directed towards revision of wording and terminology, provision of interpretations and accounting guidance to users of accounting standards and clarifications directed towards disclosures in the notes to financial statements. The management of the Company believes they will not have any significant impact on the financial statements in the year in which they are adopted. However, some of these financial reporting standards involve changes to key principles, as discussed below:

TFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

This standard is established a comprehensive framework for determining whether, how much and when revenue is recognized. Revenue should be recognized when (or as) an entity transfers control over goods or services to a customer, measured at the amount to which the entity expects to be entitled. Entities are to apply this standard to all contracts with customers unless those contracts fall within the scope of other standards. The standard establishes a five-step model to account for revenue arising from contracts with customers, with revenue being recognized at an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. It replaces existing revenue recognition standards as follows:

Thai Accounting Standard

TAS 11 (revised 2017)	Construction contracts
TAS 18 (revised 2017)	Revenue

Interpretations

TSIC 31 (revised 2017)	Revenue - barter transactions involving advertising services
TFRIC 13 (revised 2017)	Customer loyalty programmes
TFRIC 15 (revised 2017)	Agreements for the construction of real estate
TFRIC 18 (revised 2017)	Transfers of assets from customers

Newly Thai Financial Reporting Standard TFRS 15 has no impact to the Company.

The set of TFRSs related to financial instruments

These TFRSs related to financial instruments make stipulations relating to the classification of financial instruments and their measurement at fair value or amortized cost (taking into account the type of instrument, the characteristics of the contractual cash flows and the Company's business model), calculation of impairment using the expected credit loss method, and hedge accounting. These include stipulations regarding the presentation and disclosure of financial instruments. When the TFRSs related to financial instruments are effective, some accounting standards, interpretations and guidance which are currently effective will be cancelled as follows:

Newly Thai Financial Reporting Standard, the management of the Company is still evaluating the possible impact on the financial statements in the year in which TAS will be applied.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements are prepared on the historical cost basis in measuring the value of the component of financial statements except as described in the each following accounting policies.

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these financial statements.

4.1 Recognition of revenues

Revenue is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow the enterprise and the amount of the revenue can be measured reliably.

The revenues from hospital activities mostly consist of revenue from hospital room, revenue from hos rooms, medicines and other are recognized as revenues when the service is provided to customers or medicines has been distribute.

Rental income is recognized on a straight - line basis over the term of the lease.

Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis that takes into account of the effective yield.

Other income is recognizes on an accrual basis.

4.2 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent consist of cash, bank deposits, and all highly liquid investments with financial institution with an original maturities of 3 month or less, which are not restricted to any use and any use and including call notes receivable and term notes receivable maturing within 3 months or less and not subject to withdrawal restrictions.

Time deposits with maturity exceed three-month period but less than twelve-month period are recorded as current investment.

Cash at bank that have restricted in use are presented separately as "Cash at bank held as collateral" under non-current assets in the statement of financial position.

4.3 Trade accounts and other current receivable and allowance for doubtful accounts

Trade accounts and other receivable are stated at the net realizable value net from the allowance of doubtful accounts. The Company provides allowance for doubtful accounts for estimated losses that may incur in collection of receivables. The allowance is based on collection experience, the analysis of debt aging and its current financial position.

Bad debts are written off when incurred. Bad debts are written off during the year in which they are identified and recognized in profit or loss within administrative expenses.

4.4 Inventories

The Company valued the medical and supplies at the lower cost or net realizable value. Cost is calculated by first in - first out method and is charged to vessel costs of goods sold whenever consumed.

The cost of purchase comprises both the purchase price and costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the inventory, such as import duties and transportation charges, less all attributable discounts, allowances or rebates.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated cost to complete and to make the sale.

4.5 Available - for - sale investment

Investments in marketable equity securities which are intended to available-for-sale securities are presented at fair value. Changes in the carrying amounts of securities are recorded as a separate item in shareholders' equity until the securities are sold, when the changes are then included in determining in profit or loss.

The fair value of investments in units trust are estimated by comparing with the value of net asset.

Cost of investment sold during the year is calculated by the weighted-average method.

4.6 Other long - term investment

Other long - term investment is long term investment in non - marketable securities held as "Long - term investment" are valued at cost, net of allowance for impairment of investments (if any). Impairment loss of all investments in charged against the Company's statements of income.

4.7 Property, plant and equipment

Land is stated at cost less provision for impairment of assets (if any).

Property and equipment are presented at cost less from accumulated depreciation and net allowance for impairment loss (if any).

Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. The cost of self - constructed assets includes the cost of materials and direct labor, any other costs directly attributable to bringing the assets to a working condition for their intended use, the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located, and capitalized borrowing costs.

4.7 Property, plant and equipment (Con't)

When parts of an item of lands, premises and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of lands, premises and equipment.

Expenditure for additions, replacement and betterment are capitalized. Repair and maintenance costs are recognized as expenses in the statement of comprehensive income when incurred.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on disposal of an asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in profit or loss when the asset is derecognized.

The depreciation for all assets is computed by reference to their costs after deducting residual value, on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives as follows:

Building and improvement	5 - 30	Years
Tool and medical equipment	5 - 15	Years
Furniture, fixture and office equipment	3 - 10	Years
Tools	5 - 10	Years
Vehicles	5 - 10	Years

No depreciation is provided for land and assets in progress.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

4.8 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective assets. All other borrowing costs are treated as expenses in the period these are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of the Company.

4.9 Intangible assets and amortization

Intangible assets that are acquired by the Company and have finite useful lives are present at historical cost net of accumulated amortization and allowance for impairment (if any).

Amortized is calculated by straight - line basis over the asset economic useful live as follows:

Computer software	5 - 10	Years
-------------------	--------	-------

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Con't)

4.10 Employee benefit obligations

4.10.1 Short - term employee benefit

Short - term employee benefit obligations, which include salary, wages, bonuses, contributions to the social security fund, provident fund and other welfare are measured on an undiscounted basis and are recognized as expenses when incurred.

4.10.2 Defined contribution plans

The Company operates a provident fund, being a defined contribution plan, the asset for which is held in a separate trustee-administered fund. The provident fund is funded by payments from employees and by the Group.

The Company's contributions to the provident fund are charged in profit or loss in the year to which they relate.

4.10.3 Employee Benefit Plans

The retirement benefit is a defined benefit plan that an employee will receive on retirement according to Thai Labor Law depending on age and years of service.

The liability of retirement benefit is recognized in the statement of financial position using the present value of the obligation at the reporting date and past service costs. The retirement benefit is calculated annually by an independent actuary using the projected unit credit method. The present value of the benefit obligations is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows using interest rates of referred government bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid and that have terms to maturity approximating to the terms of the related retirement liability. Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited in other comprehensive income or loss.

4.11 Provision

A provision is recognized in the statement of financial position when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

4.12 Income tax

The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

The current income tax

The Company provide income tax in the accounts at the amount expected to be paid to the taxation authorities, based on taxable profits determined in accordance with tax legislation.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Con't)

4.12 Income tax (Con't)

Deferred tax

Deferred income tax is recognized, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising from differences between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. However, the deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realized or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilized. Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

At each reporting date, the Company review and reduce the carrying amount of deferred tax assets to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized.

The Company records deferred tax directly to shareholders' equity if the tax relates to items that are recorded directly to shareholders' equity.

4.13 Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is determined by dividing the net income for the year by the number of weighted-average common shares issued and paid-up during the year.

4.14 Related party transactions

Related parties comprise enterprises and individuals that control, or are controlled by, the Company, whether directly or indirectly, or which are under common control with the Company including holding companies, subsidiaries and fellow subsidiaries are related parties of the Company.

They also include associate companies and individuals which directly or indirectly own a voting interest in the Company that gives them significant influence over the Company, key management personnel, directors and officers with authority in the planning and direction of the Company's operations.

In considering each possible related party relationship, attention is directed to the substance of the relationship, and not merely the legal form.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Con't)

4.15 Impairment

The Company assess at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount.

The recoverable amount of assets is the greater of the asset's value in use and fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For an asset that does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

An impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss.

For assets other than goodwill, an assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exist, the Company estimates the asset's recoverable amount in which case an impairment loss recognized in prior periods for an asset other than goodwill shall be reversed.

An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortization, if no impairment loss had been recognized.

4.16 Lease

Operating lease - Lessor

The Company present assets for lease under operating lease contract in the statement of financial position according to the nature of the assets. Income from operating lease is recognized as income over the lease term.

Operating lease - Lessee

Leases of assets under which all the risks and rewards of ownership are effectively retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Lease payments under an operating lease are recognized as an expense on straight-line method over the lease term.

Financial lease - Lessee

Finance lease are the leases in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership other than legal title are transferred to the Company. At inception, the fair value of the leased assets is recorded together with the obligations after netting deferred interest. The leased assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Interest, finance charge, or depreciation are recognized in profit or loss.

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Con't)

4.17 Operating segments

Business segments provide products or services that are subject to risks and returns that are different from those of other business segments. Geographical segments provide products or services within a particular economic environment that is subject to risks and returns that are different from those of components operating in other economic environments.

4.18 Financial instruments

Financial assets carried on the statement of financial position include cash and cash equivalents, temporary investments, trade accounts and other receivables, and loans to related parties and financial liabilities carried on the statement of financial position include bank overdrafts and long-term loan, trade accounts and other payables, loan from related parties, liabilities under hire purchase contract, liabilities under finance lease contract. The particular recognition methods adopted are disclosed in the individual policy statements associated with each item.

4.19 Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between buyer and seller (market participants) at the measurement date. The Company and its subsidiary apply a quoted market price in an active market to measure their assets and liabilities that are required to be measured at fair value by relevant financial reporting standards. Except in case of no active market of an identical asset or liability or when a quoted market price is not available, the Company and its subsidiary measure fair value using valuation technique that are appropriate in the circumstances and maximizes the use of relevant observable inputs related to assets and liabilities that are required to be measured at fair value.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy into three levels based on categories of input to be used in fair value measurement as follows:

Level 1 Use of quoted market prices in an observable active market for such assets or liabilities

Level 2 Use of other observable inputs for such assets or liabilities, whether directly or indirectly

Level 3 Use of unobservable inputs such as estimates of future cash flows

At the end of each reporting period, the Company and its subsidiary determine whether transfers have occurred between levels within the fair value hierarchy for assets and liabilities held at the end of the reporting period that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

4.20 Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with TAS requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgments about carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

Significant accounting judgments and estimates are as follows:-

4.20.1 Recognition and derecognition of assets and liabilities

In considering whether to recognize or to derecognize assets or liabilities, the management is required to make judgment on whether significant risk and rewards of those assets or liabilities have been transferred, based on their best knowledge of the current events and arrangements.

4.20.2 Allowance for doubtful accounts

In determining an allowance for doubtful accounts, the management needs to make judgment and estimates based upon, among other things, past collection history, aging profile of outstanding debts and the prevailing economic condition.

4.20.3 Property plant and equipment and depreciation

In calculating depreciation on building and equipment, the management estimates useful lives and salvage values of the Company's building and equipment and reviews estimated useful lives and salvage values if there are any changes.

4.20.4 Deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets are recognized in respect of temporary differences only to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which these differences can be recognized. Significant management judgment is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognized, based upon the likely timing and level of estimate future taxable profits.

4.20.5 Provision for employee benefit

The obligation under the defined benefit plan is determined based on actuarial techniques. Such determination is made based on various assumptions, including discount rate, future salary increase rate, staff turnover rate and mortality rate.

4.20.6 Lease

In determining whether a lease is to be classified as an operating lease or finance lease, the management is required to use judgment regarding whether significant risk and rewards of ownership of the leased asset has been transferred, taking into consideration terms and conditions of the arrangement.

Sensitivity analysis

Reasonably possible changes at the reporting date to one of the relevant actuarial assumptions, holding other assumptions constant, would have affected the non-current provision for employee benefits obligations by the amounts shown below.

Effect on the employee benefits obligations as at December 31, 2018 and 2017 are as follows :

	Unit : Baht
	2018	2017
Discount rate
1% increase	(1,401,267.00)	(1,551,178.00)
1% decrease	1,659,025.00	1,850,821.00
Future Salary growth

1% decrease	(1,454,538.00)	(1,607,318.00)
Resignation rate
1% increase	(1,460,885.00)	(1,221,278.00)
1% decrease	134,374.00	1,398,453.00

Although the analysis does not take account of the full distribution of cash flows expected under the plan, it does provide an approximation of the sensitivity of the assumptions shown.

On 13 December 2018, The National Legislative Assembly passed a resolution approving the draft of a new Labour Protection Act, which is in the process being published in the Royal Gazette. The new Labour Protection Act stipulates additional legal severance pay rates for employees who have worked for an uninterrupted period of twenty years or more. Such employees are entitled to receive compensation at a rate of not less than that of the last 400 days which is increased from the current maximum rate of 300 days. This change is considered a post-employment benefits plan amendment and the Company has additional liabilities for employee benefits obligations as at December 31, 2018 of Baht 3.56 million.

The Company will reflect the effect of the change by recognizing past services costs as expenses in profit and loss of the year in which the law is effective.
